These past four years, four drops of time, hold much for the graduating class to remember. We editors and contributors hope this annual will help you to recollect.

In the directory there's also a word for those who've had their years here before us.

The challenge today is unemployment, and especially is it a matter of great concern to the boys and girls who are going forth from high school and colleges to make their place in the world.

You graduates from high school will soon be brought face to face with the question of a college education, and if so, in what will you major at college or you may even be asking yourself whether a college education is worth the cost.

A recent survey by the Wisconsin Education Association in which a sampling was made of over 41,000 college men and women, showed that 96 per cent were either gainfully employed, pursuing graduate work, or married and caring for their homes. Of the group studied only a very small number have been on relief at any time since graduation.

Moreover, the survey also brought out the fact that a college education pays in higher average earnings, as well as in the greater enjoyment of the things of life because of a broader general knowledge and the wisdom of the ages.

It has been proved many times that a college education does pay, but the question today appears to be "does it pay for everybody to attend college?" This answer must be based upon many personal factors which must be decided by the individual with the help of parents and advisors.

To The Present Page

Through the maze of this stupid stuff —
Foreword, faculty, dedication, "tree",
To this — the Seniors

Faculties are such necessary things,
From these teachers we take intangibilities
To mold personalities

The foreword — necessary? Well, maybe
It's an effort to share "Tchogeerrah"
With classes from '71 to '39,
Classes numbering sixty-nine.

Those men who died and are now a tree;
Why do they call it the first World War
When we hope there'll never be another?

Pictures of Junior and Senior High,
Revered institutions of learning
The school board (sometimes it must be bored).

Mr. Klassy's "message" --
Youth, unemployment, college
Why do they try to make us think Life's a struggle? We know it's Nothing but a game with lots of strife

Are these things as important as the seniors?
To Miss Leintelder, with all our all,
Even the list of names
Courteously called a staff
(Although it comforts no-one).
These things are not as important as — the seniors

Then why should they not come first?
These ambitious, loquacious,
Vivacious, fugacious young men and women, —
Girls and boys—people. Why?

This "celebrity 'en masse'" must be properly introduced
And preliminaries being traditional things,
The grand conclusion is simply this:
What has gone before
(For formality's sake)
Introduces the seniors, the class of '40 --
This annual's responsibility and response.

Time and Us

Once upon a time—a long time ago—it was way back in 1936 A. D., that we enrolled in the Emery Junior High School. We were Freshmen and we possessed that certain lackadaisical air. With president Sally Ann Linke, vice-president Archie Leigh Alley, and secretary-treasurer Arlene Klassy the year passed all too quickly. Miss Fadness fulfilled her obligations as our advisor.

Yes, that Freshman year passed all too quickly. The fall of 1937 found us trembling with apprehension as to what our future would hold. Here we were in a larger building looked upon with scorn as "greenhorns" and it took a whole year to convince the upper classes we weren't. Miss Leinfelder was selected to give us aid in all of our "trials and tribulations." As every class has to have officers, we decided that George Pfeifferkorn would be capable of fulfilling the duties of president, John Gates as vice-president, and Sally Ann Linke as secretary-treasurer. They were. Various members of the class began to participate in athletics, forensics, and other school activities as a way of proving to the juniors and seniors that we weren't too backward.

Our junior year swooped down upon our "little" group and new sophomores arrived to put us at ease. By now we had found our footing and we "knew our way around." Knowing that we would have big business to contend with during the year, we carefully elected our officers: John Fromader as president, John Gates as vice president, Dick Mattoon as secretary, and Tom Tuttle as treasurer. Don Fry, who had proved himself outstanding on the gridiron, was elected football captain for the following year. Bob Krueger showed that he knew his basketball and was elected to captain the 1940 team. Sally Ann Linke, Irene Rumary, and Jeanette Tamblingson entered the forensics race and ran well. "Ferdinand, the bull," that popular fellow of the year, inspired the theme for our prom which was held on April 29. "Johnny" Fromader and Sally Ann Linke led the promenade as king and queen. It was a most successful event due to the efforts of Miss Leinfelder, these the hardworking juniors, and all who attended.

Father Time caught up with us at last and decided to throw us out of school with fresh diplomas and high ideals (?). 1940 found Miss Leinfelder still with us as advisor. John Fromader, who had proved his worth as class president of the preceding year, was re-elected. Archie Leigh Alley, who served as the only woman on our executive board, was chosen vice-president. Dick Mattoon and Walter Pagels completed the little group as secretary and treasurer respectively. Father Time, noting that we had completed our high school education, applied his boot at commencement exercises.

Senior Class Play

The event of the senior year was the May tenth presentation of the comedy "LOVE LOOSE" (or a "reasonable facsimile" of it), starring Archie Leigh Alley as Hope Early, a social worker who rebels when her brother Dick, Charles Abernethy, is persuaded by their parents, Kathleen Fink and Walter Pagels, not to marry till he graduates from medical school. Hope does not want him to be cheated out of his life as her parents have cheated her in regard to a Sanford Welles, played by Edward McGowan. Mary and Bob, the Early's younger children, Helen Puerner and George Pfefferkorn, (the scene stealers), succeed in persuading their parents to go on a world cruise, leaving the household under the supervision of Hope and Delphie, the maid, Ruth Romoser (who lost her voice the day of dress rehearsal). Mary pits Randy Cunningham, Frederick Krause, for a college boy, Jack Milford, Tom Tuttle (quite at home as a smoothie). This romance is encouraged by Miriam Walker, Suzanne Weismann (whose laryngitis also had the cast crossing fingers). Bob Early and his friend Buzz Daley, Don Shook, smash a car belonging to Mrs. Forester, Kathleen Kelly (of the vitriolic), Dick marries Jenny Malloy, Sally Ann Linke (who makes an ideal wife), in spite of parents' objection.

For six weeks the cast really enjoyed "practicing" under the able direction of Miss Converse and Miss Graper and they were shrewd about messing up the scenes that were most fun. Tom and Helen even had a private practice in Room 14 for the sofa scene. Walt was so adept at bad timing that his paternal embraces needed much repetition.

Kathleen Fink's tears for the stormy first act were too convincing, causing Arch and Walt to exercise a good deal of giggle restraint. Aber's interpretation of a young doctor bitten by the love-bug was too, too realistic, and Ed did all right as a lawyer in the same condition. Had Mr. Lasky been in the audience we'd probably have lost Fred to Hollywood, for 'tis rumored they need juvenile actors. Don as a young "irresponsible" is our candidate for the "dead end gang." But all praises should go to George 'cause the play was his from his first entrance. He was a natural!

The man behind the scenes was Dave Theno, ably assisted by Roy Allen and John Fro-mader.

The girls who had to know the play backward, though we're thankful they didn't prompt that way, were Joyce Schlegel and Marie Edwards. If ever you see a movie with costumes by Klassy or Roessler remember to say, "I knew Arlene and Valerie when they were the costumers for the senior class play of 1940—what a play!—what a year!"

THE LAST HOUR

The hall is lit,
The CHAIR is there
The people sit
And buzz and stare

The clock hands race,
My heart does too
I hide my face
This can't be true!

The Kids look bleak,
I see a tear
They sure are meek . .
Their time is near

I'm shoved in line,
I hate to start
I should feel fine
It's just my heart

I've reached my place,
I take my seat
The crowd I face . . .
They're at my feet

The speaker stands,
My throat goes dry,
I wring my hands . . .
Could I but die!

My pals get theirs,
It's not so bad
Besides who cares . .
If you feel sad?

My name is read,
Somehow I rise
When all is said . . .
I'll have my prize

Ah—here it is,
I have it now
Oh gosh—gee whiz . . .
I'm a grad—and how!!

—“TAMMY”

Juniors

JUNIOR PRIMER

- A is for Allen, a girl so grand,
Her name is Marjorie and she plays in the band.
- B is for Bielefeldt, he's known as Ed,
If there's a hard test today, you'll find him in bed'
- C is for Conroy, known by all,
If we want a basket, we give him the ball
- D is for Diedrich, who has red hair,
She never seems to have a care
- E is for Eckhardt, who is happy and free,
If you still don't know her, her first name is Dorothy
- F is for Falk, small and very "smart,"
If you don't watch out, she'll steal away your heart
- G is for Ganzow, that's her last name
If you want the rest of it, I'll tell you, it's Lorraine
- H is for the Heths, Marion and Fred,
They aren't related it is said
- I is for Ignorance, Intelligence, too.
We do the best we can, that's all anyone can do
- J is for Johnson, her first name is Ruth
She is graceful and pretty and not at all uncouth
- K is for Knorr, not so great in height
But when it comes to brains, Dave's a mighty "big" mite
- L is for Lehmann, a short, sturdy man,
His first name is Raymond and he does the best that he can
- M is for Merriman, McGowan, Monogue, and Melotte
If you don't mind we like them all a lot
- N is for Nettum, a boy with fair hair,
If you want an answer, he'll always be there
- O is for Ouweneel, as bright as they come.
Just ask anyone, they'll tell you she's also fun
- P is for Poeppel, who never looks bored,
And if you're unhappy, she'll give you a ride in her Ford
- Q is for Question; now who wrote this stuff?
The poetry's corny and it's sure long enough'
- R is for Reichert, who's height could be more,
His first name is Ewald and he works in a store
- S is for Schiferl and Staude, each a quiet lass.
They never worry because they know they'll pass
- T is for Tieloff, Lurline by name,
With her "sax" she may win fame.
- U is for Us, we sure get around,
We're the Juniors and to be Seniors we're bound
- V is for Van Acker, June and Jim. ' '
Their names are alike, but they're not "kin".
- W is for Wolfram whose first name is Dale.
He's tall and he's handsome and a catch for any female
- X is for Xams, the instructors delight,
To keep students a-plugging far into the night
- Y is for Young, known as "Chuck" to all
A very good athlete, especially in basket ball
- Z is for Zeh, a tall silent man.
You'll find him fishing whenever he can

LIFE'S TOO SHORT TO WAIT UNTIL—

Bill Ward stops visiting the Junior High
Willis Babcock flunks in geometry
Merland Bennett loses his temper.
Bob Datley loses that smile.
Rolland Draves is seen without his green "Chevie".
Delores Foreman stops jivin'.
Rodney Green dates another girl.
Bob Hyde loses his musical ability
Raymond Krause is seen with a woman
Bonnie Kruckenberg and Bonniel Kuhn lose their Bronx accent
Laura Ouwenel loses her power of argument
Genevieve Provanzano loses that certain gleam in her eye
Hazel Puerner forgets how to write notes

Lucille Schwemmer stops smiling and laughs.
Eileen Gebhardt stops whispering in the main room.

Suppose that the Junior class would send delegates to a beauty contest. They would be sure to win if they had the following characteristics:

GLAMOUR GIRL

Peggy Hunter's hair
Lucille Martin's height
Mary Jane Case's figure
Mary Meyer's hands
Justine Matschke's eyes
Hazel Klement's complexion
Mary Jane Miller's legs
Barbara Case's clothes
Ruth Ann Becker's feet

GLAMOUR BOY

Byron Bullock's height
Robert Hausen's physique
Russell Patefield's eyes
Milo Hunter's clothes
John Borchardt's smile
Alden Krumheuer's manner
Mark Draves' dancing ability
Donald Lanzel's car

FACTS THAT HAVE NEVER BEEN PROVEN:

Margery Scott can keep quiet
Marjorie Seavert likewise.
Willis Hoffman can run out of energy.
Jim Meyer is a woman hater.
Grace Tonne doesn't know how to act bored
James Stevens does his assignments.
Marion Meske can talk loudly in class.
Donald Heinz doesn't belong to that "57" variety family.
LaVerne Reinke can't drive that little green Ford

LIMITATIONS OF "SOPH'S"

I wish I were a senior, 'cause then I'd be the boss
 I'd always do just as I pleased and take much needed rests,
 I'd just kill time and chew my gum and let books "grow moss"
 And I'd ask my pals for answers to "stiff" tests!
 With my best friend by my side,
 I'd roam the hallways wide,
 And to escape the scowling teachers, I'd flee with fervent stride --
 If I darst, but I darsen't!

And, if I darst, I'd tease Mr. Beach, for the times when he's teased me!
 I'd "hurry" Mr. Bray and all the teachers, too!
 I'd strut about with chin held high, show just who I "be,"
 An' I'd keep on showin' folks 'till I got through!
 At school I'd never stay
 Despite what the teachers say,
 I'd fish on Fridays and swim in spring and kiss the girls all day -
 If I darst, but I darsen't!

THE FRESHMAN BABY BOOK

Born: September 8, 1939, 8:42 A. M., at "Ye Olde Lesson Factory," a class one hundred and forty-seven strong

Hospital Staff:	Howard Cook	Teddy Ward	Miss Ferne Frohmader,
	Alan Jones	Bud Hebbe	Supervisor

October: We make a big noise
Alan Jones, Vergene Kaufman, and James Gates are elected Student Council officers after vigorous campaign speeches and posters.

November: We assert our charm
Many freshmen are elected officers of the dozen-odd Junior High clubs. First "G. F. P." (Grand Freshman Party) of the year. A good time is had by all.

December: We celebrate
A Christmas program precedes an eleven day visit to our paternal homes.

January: Our first clinic.
We let out a lousy howl as we undertake first semester exams. Severe attacks of "brain fever" result for most of us.

February: Our first steps.
All of us go on a visit to the House of Books (Dwight Foster Public Library). Almost a sleigh ride, too, but we couldn't catch the snow!

March: We speak
Mary Carmichael, Faye Ellen Charlton, and Mildred Kassilke take honors in the Junior High Declamatory Contest. Harry Black and Carroll Triefoff prove to be our best orators

April: We go visiting
A few of us visit the post office and take over the mails. (Not males!)

May: Second check-up and an outing
The school picnic held at Lake Ripley is a great success, but the chime following (second semester exams, if you've forgotten!) brings on more "Brain Fever."

June: Unconditionally released for three months.

"F" Club

A successful year has been completed by the "F" Club of '39 and '40. This organization was begun in 1937 to promote cleaner athletics and to build wholesome character. We feel that it has thus far fulfilled its purpose.

The officers of the club are: President, John Fromader, Vice-president, Bob Krueger, and Secretary-treasurer, Donald Fry. The main duty of the club is to elect captains. Bob Dailey was elected to lead the Fort Cardinals on the football field of the coming season. David Conroy was chosen to captain the 1941 basketball team. John Gates is the captain of this year's track team. The big social event of the year put on by the "F" Club was the Homecoming dance held on October 6. The gym was decorated in red and white, the colors of the organization.

As the "F" Club is an honor society, only boys who have earned major letters in athletics may join. Thus a new incentive is given to the athlete, to get on the team, to earn a letter, and to join this organization.

The boys in the club try to improve their surroundings and to set a good example within the school.

G. A. A.

Scene: The city skating pond. Lazy Dazy Avondupois, resting in a snow bank, lifts her head lazily to greet Athletic Alice.

Dazy: H'lo Alice, whatcha got on your jacket?

Alice: That's my new G. A. A. emblem - pretty swell - huh? Look, I've got a pin too.

Dazy: Y'know, I've heard a lot about G. A. A. but I'll have to confess, I don't know what it means - hope it's not too involved.

Alice: Why, Lazy Dazy - did that long speech come from you? Those letters stand for "Girls' Athletic Association."

Dazy: Gee whiz, I'm out of luck again! You know I don't go in for hair raising, muscle "bounding" sports.

Alice: Well, Lazy, Honey - if you'd just join, you could do lots of things and still be lady-like.

Dazy: I guess you mean "lazy like."!

Alice: But you could do lots of things like walking real slow under a big moon and then roasting weenies on a tangy stick. And in the winter you can relax on the straw in the sleigh when we go for long rides.

Dazy: What do you mean?

Alice: You see, every sport has a head to whom you report your activities. A certain number of points are given for everything you participate in, and the head hands these points to the recording secretary. Bonnie Kruckenberg. You know her!

Dazy: What sports does the G. A. A. sponsor?

Alice: Gee, there's a lot of them - "Chuck" Young heads basketball with the assistance of Virginia Lee; Klassy takes care of Volley-
; Soccer is headed by Sylvia Gehrig; bowling by Evelyn Eh-all indoor sports, Betty Hample; archery.

Dazy: Do you have archery? I just love that - just an Indian at heart, I guess.

Alice: Sure, we have it and Hazel Fry is the head of that. You should see the new equipment.

V: Can I join? I'd like to— that is, if I don't have to do too much.
A: Why sure— why don't you join now so you'll be in on spring sports. Joan Tindell has track and field, and Edith Sommertfeldt has kittenball. I always thought you'd make a good player, Dazy.

Dazy: But you always have to chase the ball so far.

Alice: Then there's tennis, headed by Mick Edwards, Helen Talcott takes care of riding; Betty Owens has charge of swimming, Carol Morgan, of golf; and Justine Matske is planning a roller skating party for this spring.

D: Miss Fry is the sponsor of G. A. A., isn't she?

V: Yes, she is. We all think she is just right for our leader. She's the one who makes things run so smoothly— our Halloween dance was a huge success— and pre-prom, more fun!

D: I heard about your initiation party too. Say, who are the officers?

V: Yvonne Lee is president for 1939 and 1940. She's always ready for a game. Bonnie Kuhn is vice president and Corinne Stackle is secretary-treasurer. Shirley Ann Grady puts our news in the paper.

D: I remember your float in the Homecoming Parade. You won a prize too, didn't you?

Alice: That was fun. How'd you like the basketball game between the teachers and the girls. They're practically honorary members you know. They take part in lots of things.

Dazy: It sure would be fun if you could go out of town for games like the fellows do.

Alice: But we do, Dazy. Every year, Play Days are held at some towns around here and real often we're invited. We want to have Play Day here this year. Aw, come on, Dazy, join now!

Dazy: Give me a hand and we'll go hunt up the secretary. I'm sold on it! !

Track

An excellent group of fellows were out for track this year. Regular squad members were John Gates, David Theno, Roy Allen, Robert Krueger, Joseph Farr, Robert Allen, and Paul Drake. Several others were Robert Hansen, Garth Godfrey, Dick Donkle, James Hadden, Heinz Luedtke, Robert Zeh, Robert Smith, Paul May, Thomas Tuttle, and Rolland Draves.

The first meet of the season at Oconomowoc was a victory for us. At Milton, May 8, we also defeated the opponents. John Fromader was high point man in each case. Other meets held during May included the district meet at Whitefish Bay, the quadrangular meet at Madison, and the state meet, May 25. We met Janesville and Whitewater College High, May 14 and May 27, respectively.

Tennis

Russell Kemmeter, Robert Hausen, David Conroy, Rodney Green, William Torton, and William Carlisle comprised our 1940 tennis team. They won the first four matches with Whitewater College High, Oconomowoc, Stoughton, and Whitewater City High. The conference meet was held here May 11; the state meet took place May 17 and 18. Coach Oscar Bienfang deserves much credit for the work he has done with the fellows.

Gym Exhibition

A parade of girls in yellow and fellows in black and white opened the annual exhibition. Mr. Messersmith and Miss Holsinger kept in marching, callisthenics, tumbling, pyramid building, rhythm exercises, and other types of gymnastic activity. Boxing matches between the boys ended the entertainment. A free will contribution was taken and turned over to the debate squad and band treasurers. Mr. Freudenberg, Miss Frey, and Miss Mathews were in charge of the various groups.

Se-Hi

Success! Under the watchful eye of our club advisors, Miss McKeand and Miss Seward, we have published another volume of fine Se-Hi's for the enjoyment of Fort Atkinson Senior High School students. Cooperation on the part of the student body and faculty has helped much to improve our paper.

Not the least of our marked improvements was the change in the distribution system. The new system allowed semester subscriptions to be sold. This assured us a stable circulation and a secure financial return.

Individual Quill and Scroll awards were given the following seniors: Kathleen Fink, Irene Rumary, and Bill Johnson. These are given to high school journalists who have done superior journalistic work.

The superb tenacity, good spirit, and talent shown by the staff have greatly improved our three-year-old paper. Next year's staff, with new members, will continue to improve the Se-Hi.

Band

Director: Stuart Anhalt

President: William Ward

Treasurer: Doris Trueloff

Vice-President: Priscilla Oettmeier

Secretary: Edward McGowan

This year we went "right to town", all decked out in new uniforms (for which we slaved all last year). Unfortunately, as yet there are not enough uniforms to go around. The present band numbers seventy one.

Rehearsals were held every Wednesday and Friday morning. This doesn't include the "early" spring and "late" fall seven-thirty morning marching practices. Some of us invariably missed hearing the alarm go off, others of us were still too much asleep to stay in the row; and those of us who had two left feet were brought to our senses with the whistles, and commands (not too politely given): "Keep your rows straight", "Guide right", "Get in step", "Stop talking", "Please turn a square corner", and a dozen and one other versions.

Of course, some mornings we did nearly freeze, but think of the benefits and enjoyment one derives from fresh air, exercise, early morning sunshine, and the beautiful warbling of the birds. But only practice makes perfect.

Our usual appearances were at the football games, basketball games, a safety meeting, homecoming, and other school events. A "pep" band was organized and really "pepped" things up at the Stoughton game.

So, with our corners all turned, and our overtures learned (even the sharps and flats) we went off to Delavan with music in our heads, and rhythm in our feet to capture the following awards:

Band: Class C

Second Division, Concert; Second Division, Sight Reading; First Division, Marching

Drum Ensemble: Class A, First Division

Jack Keeley, Agnes Wallace, Donald Smith, Harry Degner, William Ward, Lyle Hake

Duet, Clarinet Class A, First Division; Richard Strommen, Marjorie Oettmeier

Solos:

William Ward, Drum, Class A, First Division

Harry Degner, Drum, Class C, First Division

Ruth Romoser, Bassoon, Class B, First Division

Marjorie Allen, Baritone, Class B, First Division

Priscilla Oettmeier, Cornet, Class A, First Division

Donald Smith, Drum, Class C, First Division

Jack Keeley, Drum, Class B, First Division

Girls' Glee Club

If, at any time during the past year, you have entered dear old F. H. S. after school closed on Monday nights and heard its rafters ringing out sweet strains of "The Rosary", "Oh, Sweet Mystery of Life", "Carmena", and other favorites, you will now know that it was the girls in the glee club diligently exercising their vocal chords—and really enjoying it.

This year's club under Mrs. Hagemann's capable direction is composed of seventy-six members. The officers are President, Norma Schall, Treasurer, Barbara Simdon; and Secretary, Joann Bennett.

The girls participated in the music festival held at Delavan. As a group the glee club placed in second division, Class C. (Class ratings are made according to hours of practice.) Individual awards were received by Florence Miller and Joan Bennett, sopranos; Mary Jane Case and Betty Hampel, mezzo-sopranos; Janet Rumary and Florence Abernethy, altoes, and Jeanne Hagemann, pianist. Boys who sang were Merland Bennett and Charles Abernethy, both baritone. They placed in second division, class B.

Non-competitive appearances were made at the high school Christmas program, the all-school music concert in April, and the annual Commencement exercises.

An ensemble, consisting of ten voices, rendered selections at the Christmas program, Music Study Club, Methodist Church, and Masonic Temple. Mrs. Hagemann directs this group.

Mrs. Hagemann is also the director of a Junior Girls' Glee Club consisting of fifty-two voices. These girls sang at the dedication of Barne School.

Row 4: Corlune Stackle, Joyce Johnson, Mary Meyer, Josephine Lonsdale, Kathleen Fink, Esther Venning, Jean Mullan, Helen Smith, Betty Hampel, Janice Roberts, Joyce Schlegel

Row 2: Miss McKeand, advisor, Jean Hedberg, Patricia Black, Shirley Grady, Barbara Simdon, Janet Alley, Marjorie Ottmeier, Mary Riggert, Archie Leith Alley, Helen Hoxedon, Mary Jane Case

Redskins

They felt the need for school initiative, so Miss McKeand and Mr. Beach organized the "Redskins" during the school year 1938-1939. A certain number of girls was chosen from each class to make up the organization. In order to become a member, each girl must have a "C" average and take part in a number of different school activities.

This group of girls aids in the general order of the school, sponsors assembly programs, puts on pep meetings, acts as ushers at different school activities, and finances the cheerleaders. To make money, the club has candy bar sales and sponsors dances.

This year the club is again supervised by Miss McKeand and Mr. Beach, with the following officers: President, Arlene Klassy; Vice President, Sally Ann Linke; Secretary, Suzanne Weidemann; and Treasurer, Barbara Case.

We feel the "Redskins" have reached their goal and have accomplished a great deal. Because of their efforts our school has been made more interesting.

Forensics

FRONT ROW From Left to Right

Miss McKeand One of the coaches of the declamation. The result of her work is a credit to her.

Sally Ann Linker One of the two contestants in the extemporaneous reading held

Miss Lea The very able and inspiring coach of the two readers. She also coached some of the declamations.

Carolyn Morgan Carol placed first in the local serious declamation contest. Her selection "Mothers of Men" required real skill and it was done well.

SECOND ROW

Mary Ann Ribder This girl won first place in the local humorous declamation contest with her extremely clever characterizations.

Laura Ouwenel An able debater on the debate squad who should prove to be an especially capable debater next season.

Jeanette Tambling The other charming extemporaneous reader who read at the league contest and was given second place there.

Irene Rumary A girl who has been outstanding on the debate squad for several years. In fact, one of the finest debaters this school has had.

Jamie Roberts Also a debater who in this, her first year of debating, showed promise and good work in the future.

BACK ROW

Mr. Holmberg The grand coach of the serious and extemporaneous speakers, as well as head of the debate squad.

William Touton Bill placed first in the oratory contest and was given second place in the league contest at Whitewater.

Durwood Bergman A debater and also extemporaneous speaker who competed at Whitewater.

Rodney Green A good debater with a fine speaking voice.

Guth Godfrey Another extemporaneous speaker who competed at Whitewater.

Others who entered the contest: Bill Ward, H. Wick, Carl H. Tripp, Joann Bennett, Merland Bennett, Mark Draves, David Martin, Jeanette Kitzman, Janet Edythe Alley, and Edward Bielefeldt.

Debate Season

Can We Railroad It Through?

And take it from us, the question, "Resolved: That the federal government should own and operate the railroads," was a tough one; but we got out our pencils and paper and began work right away—well almost. Fort had a pretty successful year of debate considering that the squad contained only two old-timers thanks to Mr. Holmberg's excellent coaching.

We started the season by traveling to Madison on November 17, to attend the annual Debate Clinic. In the evening we had the opportunity to witness a debate between Wisconsin and Iowa Universities.

Following this, we participated in a series of debates at Watertown; Lowell and David certainly deserve congratulations for their outstanding performances as newcomers. Jeanette, we'll have you know, learned how to pronounce "politics", or did she? Fort won three out of the six debates. In these debates Mr. Holmberg used his new debaters.

On February 3 we attended the league debates at Whitewater. Here we showed our "stuff" by winning four out of six debates. The victories were divided equally between our negative and affirmative teams.

Two weeks later we journeyed to Madison once again to compete for the winning honors. Well, if you must know the results, we lost all six debates.

As a final curtain to the debate season, Laura gave a party at her house. We enjoyed skiing and sliding on a hill near by. Rodney showed us the right way to ski, while Eddy went to the other extreme. Eddy, you and Janice might find a book entitled "Skiing In Ten Easy Lessons" very useful. After a lunch, in which Dewey showed us how much the human stomach could hold, Janet played the piano, while Irene, Janice, and Eddy raised their voices and gave Mr. Holmberg the idea that we leave. So we did, and will again now.

F. F. A. Chapter Activities

The 1939-40 Fort Atkinson Chapter of the Future Farmers of America had the largest enrollment of any Chapter since it was organized in 1930. Forty-seven strong, they improved the activity and recognition of the Chapter very much.

The Rural School Crops Judging Contest, as in other years, was again conducted at Fort Atkinson High School. Forty-seven Future Farmers of America from twenty-six rural schools, located near Fort Atkinson. The rural pupils spent a whole day in Fort Atkinson visiting different industries in the morning and taking part in the contest in the afternoon. The results of the contest were as follows: May View, Cold Spring, and Cold Spring, first, second, and third in the potato judging division for teams. Top honors in the corn judging division for teams went to Barkwoods, first; Northey, second; and Cold Spring, third. Individual contest winners in the corn judging division were Koshkonong, first; Finches Corners, second; and Koshkonong, third. In the potato judging division, Northey, second, and third awards in potato judging division.

Our Future Farmer Chapter was well represented at the Annual State Judging Contest held at the University of Wisconsin. Three teams namely, Dairy Cattle, Poultry, and Agriculture. Clifford Buchholtz, Edward Finn, and Glen Reynolds were on the Dairy Cattle team. Clifford Buchholtz, Edward Finn, and Glen Reynolds were on the Poultry team and George Wenham, Alvin Sherwitz and Ted Werner were on the Agriculture team. The Future Farmers of America team from the Wisconsin-Texas football game that the boys attended Saturday afternoon.

The most enjoyable activity of our Future Farmer Chapter is the Camping Trip at the Blue Lake Camp. The trip was made on June 10-11 and came back on June 13. The best part of the trip was that there weren't any flat tires.

The Third Annual Fall Festival, sponsored by the Future Farmer Chapters under the direction of their advisors, N. O. Eckley and M. F. Ross, was held October 12-13. The Pulling Contest was held at Jones' Park Thursday evening, October 12. The competition was held between the Future Farmers of America and the high school band. The park in the form of a parade led by our high school band. A large crowd gathered to see the pulling contest. The Future Farmers of America won the contest. Husband Calling. A greased pig was let loose to finish the program. John Werner was the lucky one to retrieve the pig. The Plowing Contest, held Friday was practically rained out. Only a few of the events were held. Farm crops were displayed in the school of the Fort Atkinson Chapter. The Future Farmers of America were awarded for best entries. The Fall Festival was completed with a Harvest Ball, held in the Municipal Building Friday evening. Prizes were awarded to the winners in the contests and a new champion of the business men's milking contest was crowned. Ted Blodgett succeeded Fred Hadinger, who had won two successive years.

In addition to the regular activities of the Future Farmers of America Chapter, a group of social meetings was arranged. A business meeting is held, followed by games and refreshments.

In all organizations there are times of sorrow and distress. The death of one of our honorary members, Roy Hetts, was deeply felt by our Chapter members.

Cheerleaders

Loud yells, cheers, and earth-shaking noises coming from the main room of the school disturbs the teachers not at all. They don't run for the telephone to call the police. It isn't a fight—merely the Cheerleaders practicing up for the game.

This year our two new cheerleaders, Mary Ann Rohde and Florence Abernethy, joined the ranks to show us senior cheerleaders, Helen Puerner, Helene Hodgdon, and Kathleen Kelley, just what they could do. The purchase of three new megaphones helped them out-yell us. And they certainly accomplished their aim!

Remember our "Allah's" which always came in handy at the football games? The boys surely couldn't have made all those touchdowns without that! ! The big buildup the team got and the good support from the cheering section did a lot to make spirits high and opposing scores low. Folks at the Stoughton football game surely were worried as to the whereabouts of the "cheering five" when they didn't arrive until late in the quarter. The crowd didn't know that Edgerton offered an attraction to the girls in the form of another football game.

Then, the basketball season! ! ! The Whitewater team that defeated us, the return game where we won, the Monroe, Wisconsin High, and Edgerton games, all lead up to a championship team for the cheerleaders to follow. Then, the Stoughton game which promised to be the game of the season. Our cheerleaders yelled, our band played, and our team was in high spirits, but to no avail. We were beaten! The cheerleaders sat down. No yelling could change that score. Maybe next year! The old refrain!

Calendar

Calendar

SEPTEMBER 5

Ho hum, am I tired. School started today. Is it a big building? And more kids running around! I don't know whether I like it or not. I'm sort of scared. I don't see how those seniors and juniors can be so brave about everything.

SEPTEMBER 6

This is just like a three ring circus. Don't know if I'll ever get used to these crazy people. Those boys they call football boys — honestly they're the most "off" of all. Even started running around in those hot football suits today. Wonder why they picked the hottest day in the year??

SEPTEMBER 7

I still don't know where I'm at or what I'm doing. All I know is that a school newspaper was started tonight and it's called "See See". Oh! I know now. It's "Se-Hi". That Kelley girl, Kathleen, and that blond girl, Suzanne Weidemann, were elected co-editors.

SEPTEMBER 8

Two strange men were walking around school here all day. Some one said they were state supervisors, Mr. Merritt and Mr. Powell.

Four days of school and got a vacation already. Oh, shucks, it's only a week-end. Have a good time everybody! As for me well. I've got to get rested up 'fore I have a nervous breakdown.

SEPTEMBER 11

I heard all kinds of high shrilly voices. Girls, of course! And lo and behold it was the "Girls' Glee Club"—Wow! They sure do need some practicing. There was a meeting of an organization called "Redskins". Now for goodness sakes! What could they be? Sounds Indian, doesn't it?

SEPTEMBER 13

It's another warm day and all the girls are peeved cause they can't wear their new skirts and sweaters. Well, just so they wear something "cute" and do some of them dress!

SEPTEMBER 14

Whew! Is it hot again today! If it doesn't cool off pretty soon I'm going to quit school and go swimming or else ask the school to turnish us with ice cream bars.

SEPTEMBER 15

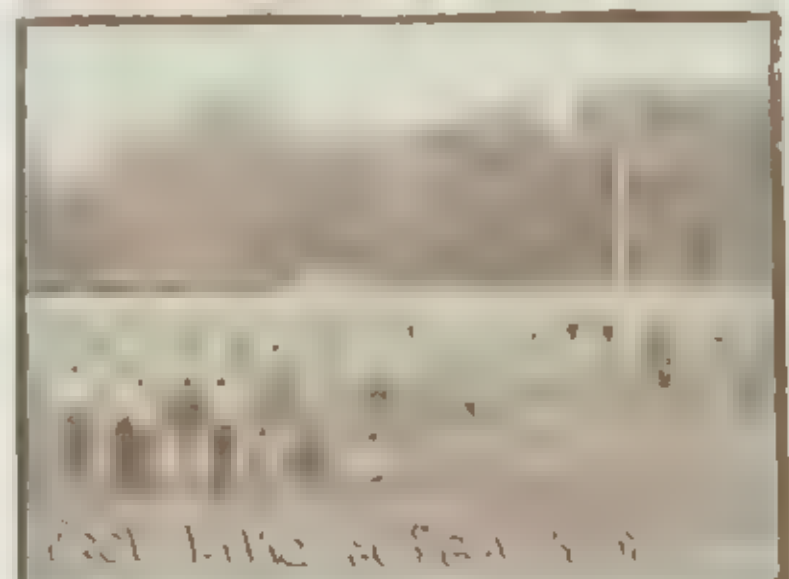

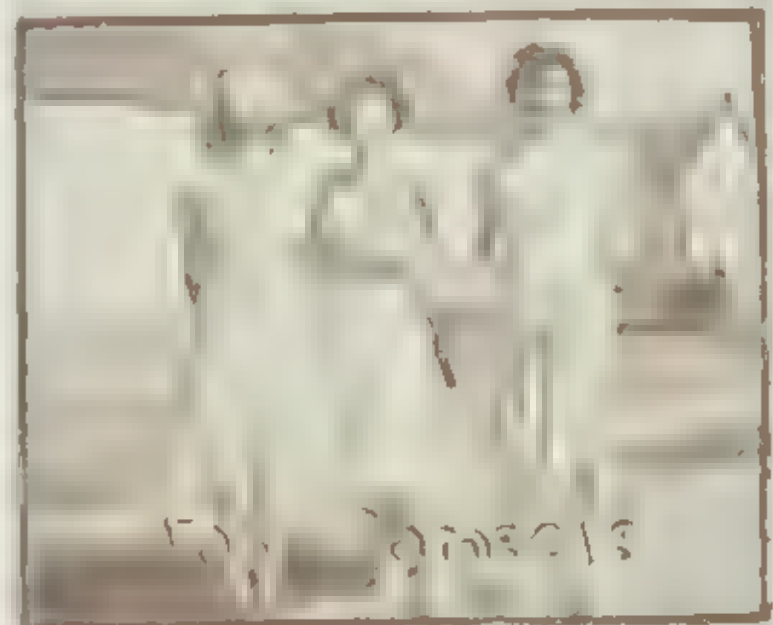

Had a pow-wow tonight directed by "Indians". Someone tried to tell me it was a pep meeting and they have 'em every Friday night before the game. How silly! There were five girls that got up and acted more foolish than the rest. Two of the girls were new at it, Florence Abernethy and Mary Ann Rhode. Anyway we won our game with Rockton 6-0.

SEPTEMBER 18

It's a wonderful day. I heard rumors around that the girls of the second period Chemistry class had their first "Lab" today (Whatever that is). I guess they experiment with different stuff. Anyway they had some fun, I guess—Maybe you better ask them how they liked it. I did, and did I get some answers.

SEPTEMBER 19

"Beatie Eriksen told me those "Indians" are Redskins. Their new leaders Arlene Klassy, chief, Sally Ann Linke, vice-chief, Suzanne Weidemann, "heap big record keeper" and Barbara Case, "keepum wampum box," were elected tonight.

SEPTEMBER 20

Of all the dumb fads What next! About eighteen girls are walking around with chicken feathers pinned on their sweaters. Pretty soon they'll be wearing the whole chicken

P S -I discovered the feathers were worn by girls who are being initiated into that "Redskins" club

SEPTEMBER 21

Everyone is all excited about the dance to-morrow night "See Weidemann was in such a daze that she forgot to go to her classes but made up for it by going some where she didn't belong I wonder if all seniors get that way?"

SEPTEMBER 22

Hunky dory! Hot dog! Fort beat Burlington tonight. Nice going fellows keep it up I yelled so much at the game Oh, my throat!

SEPTEMBER 23

Don't know what was the matter today 'cause everyone was studying, even Bud Abernethy

SEPTEMBER 26

Brrrrrr! Winter must be coming But I don't mind it much, I don't We, sophomores elected class officers today. Kenneth Schumacher, Joann Bennett, Austin Fromader, and Bob Acker, were the champs or what would they be called?"

SEPTEMBER 27

Donnie Schallert is the meanest man in town He was eating a bright red apple in typing class today and he didn't even give us a bite!

SEPTEMBER 28

Just another day of school in my life just another day Oh! Oh! I better not forget to say that the juniors and seniors elected class officers. The senior officers are John Fromader, Archie Leigh Ailey, Dick Mattoon, and Walter Pagels. The junior officers are Riland Draves (he's a football hero), Bob Hausen (another one of those heroes), June Anderson, and Mary Jane Miller Pretty nice.

SEPTEMBER 29

gain tonight at pep meeting Wish you could have heard John Gates! But our cheering didn't help the team tonight We lost to Stoton Better luck next time, boys!

OCTOBER 2

I knew I was right! I knew it all the time! Today five girls were wearing spoons around their wrists Didn't I tell you styles were getting worse and worse I wonder where they got them? Rumors have it that they were gotten at Stoton. It seems to me they should be able to get spoons around here at Fort Suppose those are a special flavor or something Huh!

OCTOBER 3

Everyone is so suspicious of everyone else Maybe it's because they're all worried about their floats for homecoming parade

OCTOBER 4

Everybody's flying around as if with his head off 'Specially that Rol Draves Of course, they have reason to Tomorrow is the beginning of the Homecoming doings Wonder what that is anyway? Well, I won't play dumb If some upper-classman asks me I'll pretend to know all about it

OCTOBER 5

Something new all the time. Had a parade tonight and it really took my breath away. Freshmen beat those seniors for first p in the class floats, and the G. A. A. gals were second to "Redskins"

OCTOBER 6

Hurrah! Whoopie! Fort beat Edgerton. This was the Homecoming game. It's the first conference game that is played at Fort this season.

There was the homecoming dance after the game. The "F" club sponsored it. I sure hope some day I'll be in that "F" club. I do hope so.

Am I getting smart. Now I know all about what Homecoming is, even though R. W. May said I was wrong.

OCTOBER 9

Wonder what "Doug" Udey did that he had to bring two apples for his teacher.

OCTOBER 10

There was an announcement today telling us we were to meet with our respective advisors. I wondered what was going to happen. Shucks! Nothing much happened except that we were told to bring a few cents for the "Jean Nicolet fund". They are building some sort of statue and all our names can be put on records under the statue if we contributed a few cents. That's wonderful! I do want my name on that.

OCTOBER 11

Remember what happened October 9? Well, I guess Miss Lemteller is influenced by bribes 'cause "Doug" Udey asked to today and was easily excused.

OCTOBER 12

Shoot! There wasn't any excitement today in any of my class but I heard that the senior German class had some real fun. That real dark girl, Audrey Gebhardt, had a pretty brown caterpillar which she put down one person's neck. The teacher caught her and I heard some of her friends were pretty horror-stricken. I wish I would have been there. Some fun, I say.

OCTOBER 13

Tonight was another game and we beat 'em again. Watertown, I mean. 7-1.

OCTOBER 16

Wheel! I sure was lucky this six weeks. Why, I even got two B's. Some of those faces look pretty gloom! You see, the first report cards of the year came out today. I don't like the envelopes they come in. I think they'd be much nicer if they were blue instead of that dull brown or tan, don't you?"

OCTOBER 17

Didn't know I was so important! They had Mr. Pfefferkorn here to take my picture today. Incidentally, the other sophomores and those juniors were there too and got in on it.

OCTOBER 18

Betty Nethelm and Dick Strommen must think it's Spring 'cuz they're singing the latest love songs together.

OCTOBER 19

Oh, Oh, today Jean Hedberg and John Gates, started to sing around here too.

OCTOBER 20

It rained cats and dogs today. There were "poodles" all over. We won the "mud fight" at Monroe to night. 'Scuse me, football game.

OCTOBER 23

Those football boys combed their hair and powdered their noses and put on their best grins just to have their pictures taken to d. They must think they're something. Well, they are!

OCTOBER 24

Mr. Bray was at the senior class meeting to night so I heard he's getting younger every day.

OCTOBER 25

Not even spinal meningitis can stop us! We play Wisconsin High on schedule Friday. We'll show them

OCTOBER 26

You know Edna Northey found herself on the absent list to-day. What's this world coming to?

OCTOBER 27

Oh what a day! Had such fun seeing the football boys off this noon. We tried hard enough to win, but we just couldn't score against Wisconsin High. Betcha it was 'cause their hands got cold. I know that was it. The G. A. A. dance welcomed them back in proper style though.

OCTOBER 28, 29 and NOVEMBER 1

Only three days of school this week. Gee, I wish they would have teachers' conventions more often.

NOVEMBER 6

Sumpin' was said about our getting educated this week. Don't know what's so new about that. Jean T. just told me that we have a speaker every day this week and that this is called "Education Week." Those speakers are going to have a bigger audience than I 'cause Verne and Betty Keelev from Whitewater enrolled today.

NOVEMBER 7

Mr. Brickman talked on "Economics in Education." Oh, - go Mr. Brickman. Don't see any difference, though. Those speakers are nice. Sort of the friendly kind and can she give

NOVEMBER 8

Some fun! Mr. Jeffords was up here to-day and not to sell hard either, but to tell us about "Education for Civic Responsibility." I feel more grown up already. Wonder if Dad will let me have the car tonight.

NOVEMBER 9

That speaker to-day was wonderful! He talked about "Forming Good Habits in School." What's his name? Why, Mr. Bray of

NOVEMBER 10

Today we got ahead of time. They can't stump us by having Armistice day on Saturday! We observed it to-day.

NOVEMBER 13

Whew! Nope, none of us saw the skunk, but I have an awful funny feeling that there was one around. Janet D. said the fifth hour German class certainly suffered. Guess it wasn't 'cause of German either! I wonder, do we all have to take Chemistry before we get out of here?

NOVEMBER 14

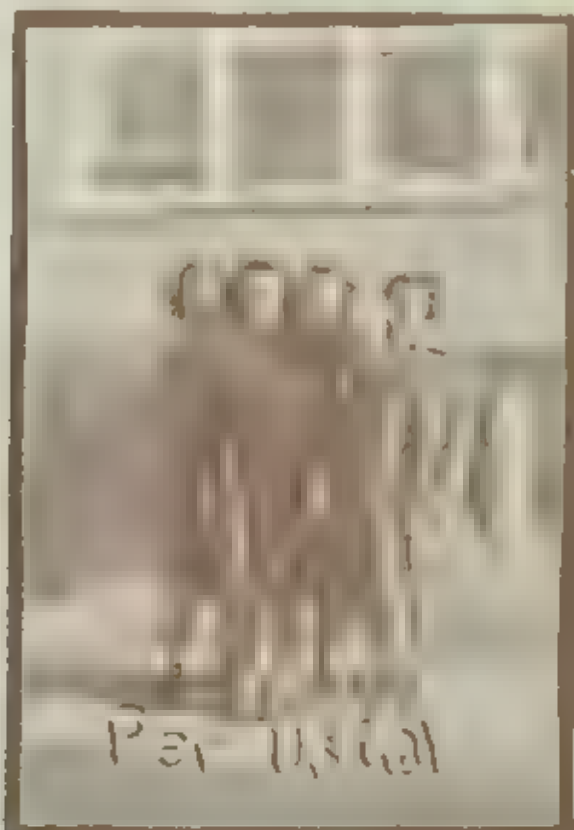

Wonder how he got so smart? Guess I'll have to start studying. Fifty dollars is nothing to laugh at. Why I've never seen so much money all at once! Neil Bultman certainly is lucky! Maybe when

NOVEMBER 15

Latest style. You can add years to your age by covering up two of your teeth with black jack gum. Two of those silly seniors tested it and it works beautifully. They were Helen Puerner and Audrey Gebhardt, so I hear.

NOVEMBER 16

"Chuck" Young said there is a G. A. A. party to-night and then we members are to be instigated too. No, I mean initiated. I bet it'll have a good time. Well, at least the old members will.

NOVEMBER 17

I'm so thrilled! There was a fire drill to-day and R. W. May way down stairs. Didn't know they fell that hard for me—Fiddle dee dee. The team won the first basketball game of the season to night, they traveled to Lake Mills to beat 'em. I just heard about that G. A. A. party. Oh boy, what stunts they pulled.
Can you imagine four teachers running around playing games with the "kids"? Well, that's what I heard. and then they served chili.

NOVEMBER 20

Do-mi-so do. Yea, the Boys' Glee Club had a meeting. Pretty soon Roy Allen, "Smooze" Peters, and them a trio.

NOVEMBER 21

Whew! It's been a hard day. At least for those to Dive Theno and Tom Tuttle. Boy, they get it. at business man's of the annual too. I heard that A-sler fell so hard last night that she wasn't even in it.
Wonder who or what she fell over. (Maybe I should

NOVEMBER 22

I was scared out of my wits to day! Heard a blood curdling shriek at the end of the sixth period. But I guess it was only the meeting of a tack and Helene. Poor tack! Excuse me (typographical error). Poor Helene!

NOVEMBER 23

Oh all the nerve. Why, we have to go to school ing Day. Anyway, we won't celebrate our Thanksgiving until next week. I heard Clarence Heese tell Miss Leinfelder that his family is going to celebrate to day.

NOVEMBER 24

First home basket ball game tonight. We played Lake Mills and lost by two points. That Krueger sure is a good player. After the game the "Redskins" sponsored a "mixer". I danced with Joyce Johnson, Janet Alley, and Mary Jane Case. They're okay!
I can't decide which one is the "best looker".

NOVEMBER 27

She has sort of blond hair and it's curly. She wears glasses and is real pretty. She has a smile for everyone. Who is she? Why Lucille Martin. of course! She entered our school to day.

NOVEMBER 28

This afternoon the "Fs" for football were given out. My, they gave away a lot of them! Is that Bob Dailey lucky? He's football captain next year.

NOVEMBER 29

Our basketball team traveled to Burlington. They were beate
'921. It was a good game, though. Those fellows can play.

DECEMBER 4

We got our report cards again today and we know just about how we rate with the teachers. Anyway I passed in everything.

DECEMBER 5

Our fellows played a basketball game tonight at Whitewater.
They whipped us but don't worry boys. It wasn't a conference game.

DECEMBER 6

For goodness sakes! Those seniors sure must be in a hurry to graduate. They voted on class announcements to day, and here it's only December.

DECEMBER 7

An awful day! That Wisconsin Cooperative test we had to take was awful. Never again for me. They sure asked some silly questions in it.

DECEMBER 8

Friday finally has come around and I can go to see those Farr "basketeers" drop in some more baskets tonight! They do drop them in. We won over Burlington, 25-19. I guess Burlington doesn't think they're so smart now.

DECEMBER 11

The only thing that I can remember that happened today was that our English teacher, Miss Aslakson, spilled a bottle of green ink all over the main room desk. I thought sure she would ask me to wipe it up, but she didn't. Shucks! But still I would have been scared to go up there on the stage and have everybody watching me.

DECEMBER 12

It was a nice day outside but inside??? Those chemistry students have more nerve. They made hydrogen sulphide in the laboratory today and the smell was terrific. Some nerve, I call it.

DECEMBER 13

It was sort of dead around here today. I can't understand it. I guess every school has dead days. Even Joe Farr seemed to be satisfied just to sit still in the study hall.

DECEMBER 14

Wow! The main room sure looks fancy. Christmas decorations up. Wreaths on the windows, and a Christmas tree on the stage. They tell me the Redskins did it. They must be ambitious. My, I like it.

DECEMBER 15

Our team played Wisconsin High tonight. We won. There was a dance afterwards. Everyone dashed back from the game to attend it. It was lots of fun. I danced with all my girl friends. I was rather disappointed though, I did so want to dance with June Anderson, but did I get a chance? No. Wait until I get a hold of him!

DECEMBER 18

Another week of school has begun. It was just sort of a "Blue Monday." Everybody was solemn and didn't have much to say. I mean, everyone except Mark Draves. Oh yes, Barbara Simdon is another one. Talk, talk, talk.

DECEMBER 19

Did I ever have the school work to do today? I didn't have time to have any fun. I studied and studied. I happened to mention it to one of the Juniors and she said "Wait until you get geometry and American History." Believe me I have plenty right now with Algebra and Biology! Those Juniors make me tired. Boy, I feel grouchy! I've got a headache, too. Well, that will soon disappear when I get something to eat. Maybe a nice hot fudge.

DECEMBER 20

Hurrah!! It snowed today. Maybe we'll have snow for Christmas. I could hardly wait to get out of school so I could throw a few snow balls. But alas! We were asked to stay to meet with our advisors.

DECEMBER 21

It snowed again today. But shucks, the sun came out and melted it away. Sometimes I don't like the sun and this is one time that I don't.

DECEMBER 22

Friday. Whoopee! The last day of school this year. Don't be alarmed. I only meant we don't have to come back until January and it will then be next year. They had a Christmas program with us and everything. This evening our team played Whitewater. Who won? We did, of course.

1940

JANUARY 3

Hello again, and Happy New Year! Betty Jane said it isn't happy for Dick Strommen. He started the New Year by coming down with scarlet fever. Then practically everyone else in school had to go home, too—about four kids were exposed.

JANUARY 4

Joyce Schlegel is little but oh my! She certainly was raising a rumpus the fifth period. I'd be scared to death to dare a thing like that.

JANUARY 5

Heigh-ho, game at Monroe. We lost it though. Now that's poetry 'cause it tells facts and it's awful pretty too. At least I think so.

JANUARY 8

I'm always writing 'to day it snowed', 'it snowed,' 'it snowed.' But it did today, too. So what can I do about it?

JANUARY 9

The senior class must be pretty important or think they are. They voted on three candidates for the D A R contest. That means Daughter of the American Revolution, you know. And I always thought it stood for "Dex" and Ralph.

JANUARY 10

Petennial meeting to night. Oh no, that doesn't sound right, guess I mean annual meeting. Well anyway, whoever it was met. At least that's what Bob Krueger told me. He's captain of the basketball team (but of course you knew that) and I was so thrilled to have him talking to me that I don't remember exactly what he said. What a name for the high school annual. Tchogeerrah. I can't say it unless I sneeze.

JANUARY 11

iddle dee dee! We were warned about throwing paper on the floor and about snowballing. Don't they know we're good boys and girls (sometimes)?

JANUARY 12

I hate to admit it but I really don't think I ever would have had Don Fry's courage. He picked up a live and squirming mouse that was running around the main room. And then Mr. Holmberg put it in his pocket! I didn't know whether to laugh or feel sorry for the mouse. But everyone around me was laughing, so I laughed too. We did play Stoton to night and beat 'em, 25-18. Afterwards, there was a perfect dance at the high school. A Mexican affair which was given by the debate squad.

JANUARY 15

What a break! I would live two blocks from school, so I was able to plow through the snow drifts. 165 were missing today. They probably all slept until 10:00, too. The snow is too pretty to make anyone angry for very long.

JANUARY 16

Whoopie! Kathleen Fink won the D A R contest. I just learned to know her last week. She's a tall blond, nice looking! Winning this award means the Seniors think she is just about "tops" well, maybe others than the Seniors think so.

JANUARY 17

Advisory meetings were held again to night. We're going to bring dimes to help in the "March of Dimes." There goes a milk shake, it's worth it. The money is for infantile paralysis victims.

JANUARY 18

Everyone must be terribly tired. When I walked in the main room this afternoon, Dave Kelley was yawning. I glanced over to the other side of the room and Gene Procknow, Audrey Gebhardt and Betty Hertel had their mouths wide open.

JANUARY 19

There was a basketball game at Watertown tonight. Fort lost. We still have a good chance for the championship, 'cause look at all the good players and all the games left to play.

JANUARY 22, 23

I never saw so much studying in all my life! I guess I bet study, too, because we have exams for the next three days. Jan Roberts tried to explain some Algebra review problems to me, but I don't remember a thing she said. I tried to make her believe I was catching on. Someone said that even Robert Krause was studying today.

JANUARY 29

Exams are over and another semester has begun. We got our report cards. I got through this semester! I sure hope I get through the next one.

JANUARY 30

Some more competition for me. Frank Schuster entered my class today. He's good looking, too. Blond and everything. I hope my girl doesn't forget I'm still around. I'm going to have to get acquainted with him.

JANUARY 31

I walked to school with Elmer today and what he didn't tell me??? He sure has a case on a bunch of girls. Why so many wonder???

FEBRUARY 1

Betty Zeugner must have been in a hurry. She jumped down too many steps. Did she hear about it?

FEBRUARY 2

There's a basketball game tonight. Had another one of the "pep meetings". Are they ever lots of fun! I wish I could think as easily as those girls can.

FEBRUARY 5

This is another one of those days when everywhere someone is yawning. I even had to yawn watching them. I wasn't tired when I started for school today. It's a funny world.

FEBRUARY 6

Sally Ann Linke, Carol Morgan, Mary Jane Case, Helene Hodgdon, and a whole bunch of other girls were wearing corsages today. I guess spring must be right around the corner. We had an advisory meeting tonight.

FEBRUARY 7

Mr. Beach had a class in etiquette for the senior girls again tonight. I'm going to sneak in sometime and get some advice. Sounds like fun.

FEBRUARY 8

Everyone was quiet and busy around school today, but did I even have to laugh! Just before school was out Bud Abernethy had a lesson in learning to "walk" up and down steps. (Especially down). Miss Leinfelder was his teacher.

FEBRUARY 13

Garth Godfrey just showed me his new issue of Se Hi. "Betwixt Lemons" certainly is good. Hepzibella isn't like my girl. I'm glad my girl is, too.

FEBRUARY 14

I sent Patsy Black the prettiest Valentine. It was big and fancy and frilly. But that isn't all. I got one from her, too. Hot dog!

FEBRUARY 15

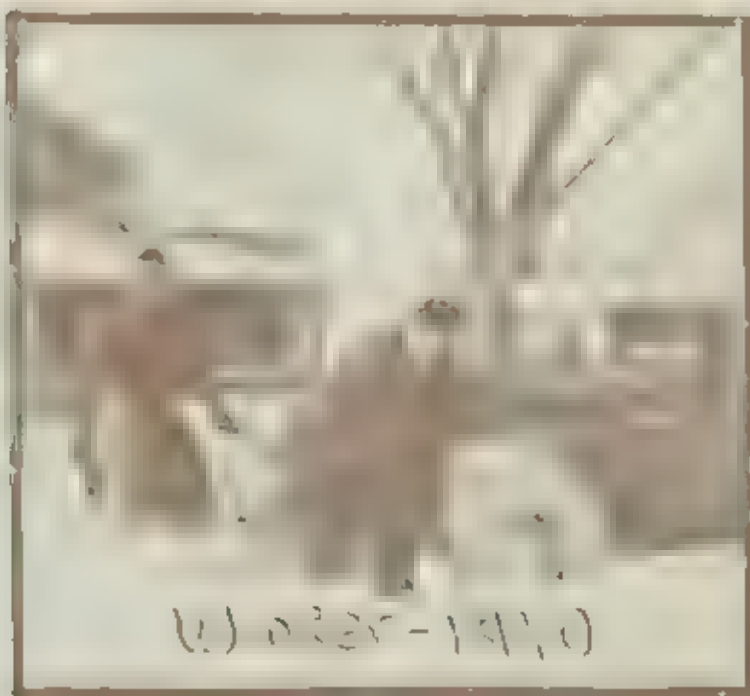

Wuzzy was a bear
Wuzzy had some hair
Wuzzy lost his hair
Wuzzy wasn't fussy was he?

FEBRUARY 16

I was so excited about that game with Stoton I could hardly study. I noticed Tom Goodrich wasn't studying either. We did win and I feel like crying!!!

FEBRUARY 19

Elmer Peters was grouchy to-day, and so was Dave Therrell. Someone ought to sing "In the Mood" to them.

(1) 0325-1470

Feb 19 1919

FEBRUARY 20

Dear me I missed a basketball game to-night. I thought of dressing up like a girl but I knew that I couldn't fool Bonnie Krimkenberg. The game was between the teachers' and Bernice Gamble's basketball team. I wish I'd have seen it!

FEBRUARY 21

Mr. Holmberg is going to have a special class at 3:36. Do hope I get to be in it. Did the teachers get beaten last night? I thought they'd win with Miss Leinfelder on the team!

FEBRUARY 22

Wish George Washington would have a birthday more often. The program today was fun; we got out of school early, too.

FEBRUARY 23

The building was nearly flooded today, so that old pipes had to be fixed. Yesterday Dave Leonard almost had a shower in Room 14.

FEBRUARY 26

I'm so happy! I got a bright idea. I'd now I can go to the show for fifteen cents. May I go? Schlegel will go with me to-morrow. Gotta run to ask her.

FEBRUARY 27

The Seniors had a mock election to-night. I guess they get together and decide who's the teachers' pet and who's the most popular and stuff.

FEBRUARY 28

I'm all worn out! We practiced for the Gym Exhibition again. School was dismissed for the practice.

FEBRUARY 29

Leap Year Day! I wonder if any of the girls believe in it? Shucks, no one smiled any more sweetly at me. I did see some one smile at Don Schallert though, and did he smile back!

MARCH 1

The Gym Exhibition was held at the Community Building this evening. So many people were there that I got awfully scared and when I climbed on top of the pyramid, I fell right back down.

MARCH 4

Monday again with lots more work to do. There were a bunch of birthdays at school today, Mr. Bray's, Miss Leinfelder's, and Arlene Klassy's. Some fun! (There I go saying that again but I just can't get out of the habit.) The tickets for the basketball tournament were on sale today. I'll have to buy one tomorrow.

MARCH 5

Cloudy today and sorta' cold, too. I was walking through the middle hall today and it seemed so lonesome around. Those girls on hall duty must get terribly lonesome, I'd like to keep some of them company.

MARCH 6

What happened to Valerie Roessler's shoe this morning?? She had one evening slipper and one sport shoe! I wonder if she's starting a new style?? Sorta' funny if you ask me. Fort played their first tournament game tonight and they won. Yea, Fort!

MARCH 7

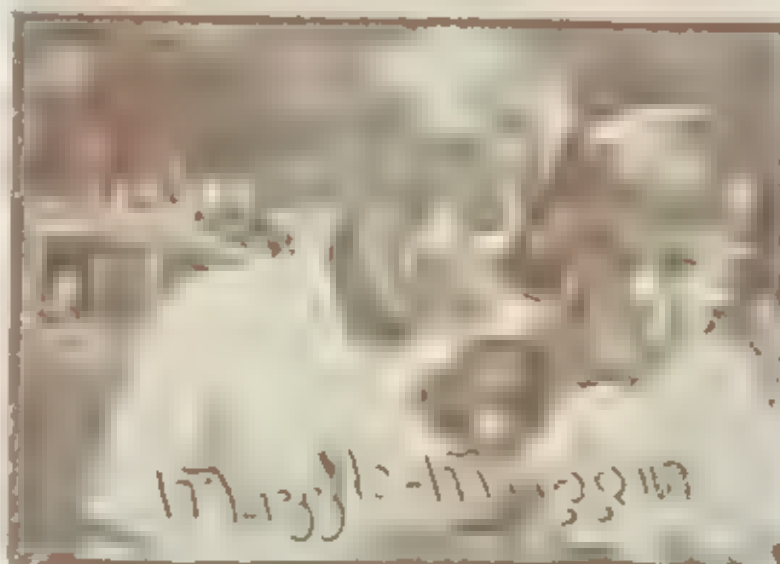

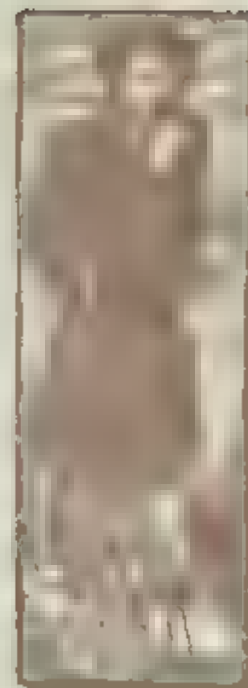

There was a teachers' meeting tonight after school so I didn't have to stay for detention. I just wonder what those teachers talk about besides bad students and misbehavior.

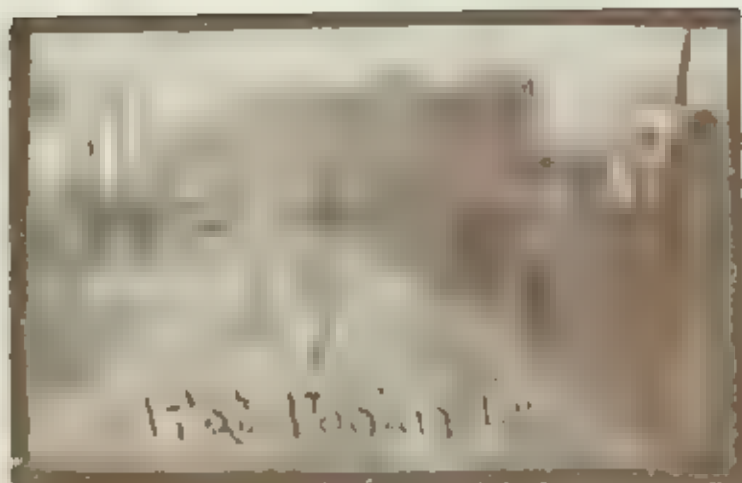

MARCH 8

Another pep meeting after school. Are those Cheerleaders neat and can they yell? Fort played Delavan and they lost.

MARCH 11

Wayne Hinkel is a good substitute teacher but I wish Miss Leinfelder would come back.

MARCH 12

Yeah! Yeah! Another game between students and faculty tonight. We won too! Mr. Holmberg sure did run around!

MARCH 13

You just should have heard them singing. Oh! I mean the two "Ab's" and Roy Allen. It took my breath away, I tell ya! I heard them practicing down in the music room.

MARCH 14

Jeepers! Almost got knocked over when I looked at Mary Lou Glass today. You should see her bangs! She looks pretty swell. I'll have to take her out sometime soon.

MARCH 15

Had such a "super elegant" time at the Redskin dance tonight. They had punch and everything. All the girls were dressed like "beautiful dolls."

MARCH 18

Mr. Bray told us all about those annuals. I'm going to get one this year. He said if we waited too long they would cost about $25.00. Just think!

MARCH 19

I've always envied that Bob Hausen going with Helene Hodgdon. On top of it all, he's Prom King, too. (Sigh! Sigh!)

MARCH 20

First day of Spring and last day of school! Whoop-de-la-la! Five days vacation!

MARCH 26, 27

Just like Winter instead of Spring, it snowed both days. It's tough getting adjusted again after spring vacation.

MARCH 28

Ruth Romoser told me there were senior class play "tryouts" tonight. More fun! I bet. Wait until I'm a Senior.

MARCH 29

Another Dance. And did I dance. I think I danced the most with Beatrice Erickson and Pam Jensen. They're okay!

APRIL 1

April Fool's y. I didn't get fooled once. You just ask Miss Lea why she "ed up Louie Lorman"? I did! They say Miss Aslakson bite beautifully too.

APRIL 2

It was almost "just another day" until we had a speaker from Marquette University.

APRIL 3

Wow! Did Gerald Zebell ever get scolded in History class today. Guess he won't talk again for a little while.

APRIL 4

All those "Forensic" people went to Whitewater. Mr. Holmberg went, too, so we had tests. It isn't fair just because he is gone to have tests all ready for us "stay-at-homes."

APRIL 5

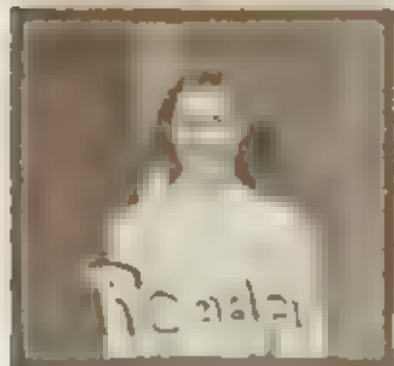

Swell day. Like spring really ought to be.

APRIL 8

I almost thought school began at 3.36. Just piles of kids were asked to stay after school tonight.

APRIL 9

There was "Track" practice tonight. Some of those girls thought the guys looked "cute" in their running outfits. Just imagine. But if you ask me—but you didn't, so I won't be saying a thing.

APRIL 10

There was class play practice tonight. I sneaked up and watched them. Gee! Tom Tuttle can act! and so can that Katie Fink (She's the mother)

APRIL 11

Ed Bielefeldt fell down on the way to school today. A little while later he came in with a different pair of pants on. Wonder what happened??

APRIL 12

Today they told us officially who the "queen" of the Junior Prom was. Norma Jean Tricloff looked so happy and pretty to night at the crowning. My heart flopped right up in my throat when she grinned at Me! I was wishing I could get near enough to smell of that beautiful corsage she got from the G. A. They sponsored the dance tonight too

APRIL 15

Everyone is running around practicing for something. There was glee club and class play, track and a couple of other things!

APRIL 16

This is such a nice spring day I started dreaming about what do you think?

APRIL 17

Did you ever hear of such a thing? The weather man must think this is December! 'Cause he had it snow. Goodness we'll have to shovel our way to Prom

APRIL 18

Everyone is in a "dither" today. Guess Prom would get anyone but me though

APRIL 19

At last! It's here and gone now, but had such a wonderful time! My girl liked her flowers, too. Gee! I wish they had Proms more often. You know I was afraid I'd get all tangled up in those skirts but I didn't. Not after the first eight dances. Then everyone else got mixed up in the Grand March but my g and me! We showed them how. We were the ONLY ones doing it right!

APRIL 22

George Bright and John Gates were acting foolish today. But it looked like fun! Anyway, Rows A, B, C all had to stay on detention tonight

APRIL 23

I saw Harriet Noel, Marion Stackel, Marilyn Bergmann, and a whole bunch of others twirling batons tonight. How do they ever keep from dropping them? Or do they once in a while

APRIL 24

Today is one of those days when you feel silly and I think everyone did. Especially Norma Schall

APRIL 25

The final practice at school tonight before the Music tournament! Janet Rumary is swell and so is Florence Miller. In fact they all did "superb" work (big word, learned it in English today)

APRIL 26

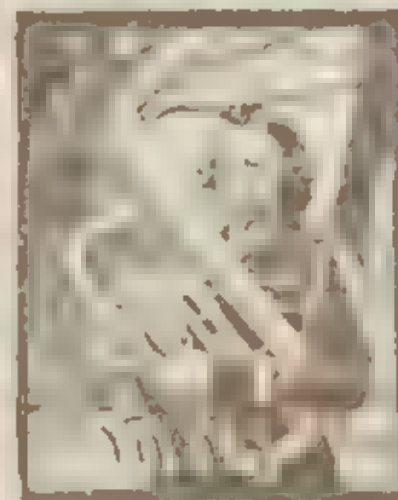

Everyone is at Delavan today and besides some kids skipped school. They'll make up their lost time, though

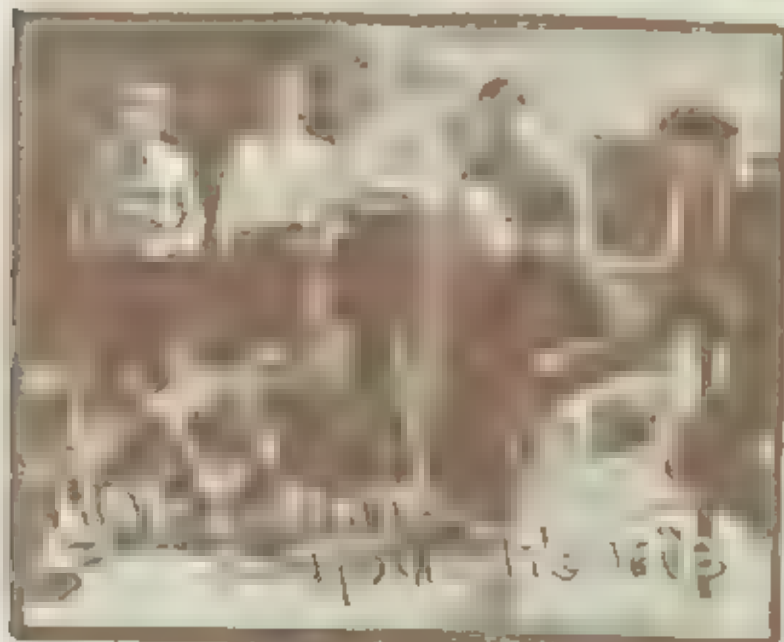

APRIL 29

Our track team went to Oconomowoc and showed them how Saturday. John Gates is a swell captain!

APRIL 30

We got Se-Hi papers again. This one was awfully good. It had lots of gossip and stuff. My name was in it, too

MAY 1

Imagine! Snow—and my mother put my mittens in moth balls last week phew, they smell

MAY 2

Our track team met Janesville "B" team at Janesville

MAY 3

Oh, Mr. Beach! Every Physics student is frantically trying to get his "Light" paper in A little light on the subject might help

MAY 7

To Milton this time for track This is the first year in a long while that the teams have done so much

MAY 8

The class play "Footloose" was given at the "San" at Jefferson Those actors sure do travel around If it turns out to be a success there, I'll have to go

P.S. I was really going anyway cause that Puerner girl is in it and I heard she really can act

MAY 9

Matinee for "Footloose" in the Municipal building. My little brother went! He said Tom Tuttle was better than Gene Autry

MAY 10

The big night and final performance for the class play Everything went off wonderfully Can't wait till I'm in one. Jean H. would be my leading lady

MAY 11

District track meet at Whitesh Bay today. Wish I was on the track team Maybe I can make it next year. The "Redskins" sponsored an all school mixer I took "my girl"

MAY 17

Quadrangular meet at Madison Central "B", East "B", Prairie Du Sac, and Fort Atkinson It's the track team again

MAY 25

Today is the state track meet Some of those boys sure can run and jump and throw that discus That's something else I'll have to do when I'm a senior

MAY 29

Today they handed out our annuals. Wonder how in the world they got hold of my diary??? Snoops! It makes me a little sore I'll have to be more careful where I keep things after this

MAY 30

Decoration Day

MAY 31, JUNE 3, 4

Ugh, final exams Did we ever have to study! And that's that for another year Now I can forget what I learned and have some fun

JUNE 2

Those Seniors had their Baccalaureate service tonight. Frederick Krause said the tassel on his cap tickled his nose! Well, I know one thing when I graduate, I absolutely refuse to wear one of those outfits. My mind's made up

JUNE 6

Commencement! We sorta' hate to see those seniors go! They & they hated to go, too. That leaves room at the top for me in 1942

JUNE 7

Alumni banquet and dance. Wish I were going! The old diary can't get any first hand information about such things. The girls wore formals and the fellows sure were "shicked" The food was good, too, so I hear
